Heidelberg’s old town, the castle – you will find history at every turn. The city that is home to Germany’s oldest university (established in 1386) looks back on 800 years of history. During this time, the city has attracted poets like Goethe, Eichendorff and Mark Twain, famous artists like Turner, Fohr and Trübner were inspired by its colorful impressions, and composers like Brahms, Schumann and Carl Maria von Weber translated the triad of river landscape, old town and castle into music.

Apart from its historical and cultural aspects, modern-day Heidelberg is also a center for science and commerce: International and German companies like IBM, ABB, Heidelberger Druckmaschinen or the European telecommunications company Eurescom underscore the importance of Heidelberg. Heidelberg is known as a center for biotechnological research and pioneer for information technologies and environmental strategies. It is home to the Academy of the Sciences, the College for Jewish Studies, the German Cancer Research Center and 5 Max-Planck-Institutes.

Today, Heidelberg has about 150,000 inhabitants and 20,000 students, making it one of the “youngest” cities in Germany.

In the evenings, people meet in the bars and cafes on and off the “Hauptstrasse”, one of the longest pedestrian zones in Europe (1.7 km), where you will find international cuisine, from Chinese and Indian food to European and south-American specialties.

"The city with its position and its entire surroundings is, one may say, quite ideal"

J.W. von Goethe
The Heidelberger Pädagogium

was established in 1969 as a public — spirited educational institution by two high school teachers aiming to lead young people firmly through their daily school routine. Today, the institute is one of the most renowned non — profit service enterprises in Heidelberg and is engaged in a multitude of measures with currently over 60 socially committed teachers serving educational and scientific training as well as continuing and vocational training:

School accompanying measures
- Homework supervision

Scientific advanced training
- Classical courses for university students to acquire the necessary knowledge of Latin and classic Greek
- complementing courses in mathematics, biology and chemistry for university students

Further vocational training
- German classes for foreigners (full time, mornings and night classes, all levels reaching from alphabetization to DSH-preparation), alphabetization courses
- Integration courses German as a foreign language (through the Federal Office for Migration)
- Foreign languages (English, French, Spanish, Russian, Turkish, Portuguese, Lithuanian etc.)
Our German courses in Germany are more popular than ever. As the most spoken language in the EU and one of the most influential international languages of business, learning German is a surefire way to broaden professional and personal horizons.

The inscription can be done for any duration.

German intensive courses

All courses (except DSH and TestDaF) start every month on all levels, late enrollments are possible on inquiry and after doing a placement test.

Groups: Effective learning and individual tutoring in small groups (7 - 15 students). We can always arrange extra groups if there are 6+ students on the same level wishing to form a group. Just ask!

Education: Our highly qualified teachers have extensive experience and are passionate about helping you to develop and improve your German language skills. We use a variety of effective teaching techniques to help you learn quickly.

Certificates: Certificates of participation are available free of charge. (Also in English)

Enrollment: A fully completed application form needs to be handed in and the fees for one month in advance are payable one week before the course starts (with accommodation one month before the course starts). All intensive courses can be booked monthly. Weekly bookings are also possible.

placement test: Students who have already learned some German can be placed into the appropriate course after completing a placement test.

Lessons time: Monday to Friday from 8.50 to 12.15 AM or 1 to 4.15 PM, which amounts to 80 classes per month.

ACCOMMODATION

Our leased apartments have 5-6 fully furnished single rooms, students will share two bathrooms and one kitchen. For reasons of hygiene, there are no bedding sets in the rooms (pillows, quilts, sheets) – these may be booked in advance for a cleaning fee of 30 EUR. The monthly rent amounts 270 EUR to 350 EUR including all utilities and must be paid at least 4 weeks in advance. The rooms are only available to the participants of the Heidelberger Pädagogium and for the duration of the course.

Room reservations must be made by signing the app. box on the registration form. The security (80 EUR), the course (310 EUR) and the advance payment for the rent (235,- EUR) have to be credited to our account at least 4 weeks before the course starts. Because we are liable to pay the costs for the room in advance, you have to notify us of cancellation or postponement four weeks prior to arrival. After that period, reimbursement is not possible. On moving out, the rooms have to be impeccable and clean swept.

ARRIVALS

Students with a room reservation can be met at the train station or the bus station and be taken to their accommodation. Every student will be given detailed information and a city map. Arrivals are on Sunday before the course starts (10 am - 6 pm) and departures on Saturday after the course ended (10 am - 4 pm). For students who arrive outside this time window we will organise other transports (e.g. a taxi) but they will have to carry these extra costs themselves.

Students who stays in Heidelberg longer than 3 month are required to register with the Office of Foreign Affairs one week on arrival. As this office is in the vicinity, the Pädagogium can help you with the registration.
